Why Choose

PERFECTED IMAGE DEVON
WEDDINGS - PORTRAITS - PORTFOLIOS - DIGITAL IMAGING

Anyone can take a picture can't they?

It's true they can, but memories, stories and moments are much more difficult and important to capture. We pride ourselves in doing exactly that, giving you a book or CD full of moments and memories.

If one meeting before the day isn't enough to go through all of your needs, then we will meet you, call you, or reply to your emails as much as possible to make it clear and simple what you want from the day. Family members will be able to take the same photographs at the same time as we do, they won't be blocked or asked to move aside.

You will receive your photos the way you wanted them, your input is the most important thing to make your memories. We are not pushy and impatient, we will wait for you and blend into the crowd, engaging with your guests and family to build a rapport and in return provide you with relaxed, happy moments and memories to be relived forever.
